120 PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS AND PRAYERPOINTS FOR 2026

Preface to the Prophetic Declarations and Prayerpoints

I pray that as you recite the following declarations of faith, the Almighty God will draw you closer to Himself and you will always experience God's tangible presence. Remember that there is nothing in this life that can be traded for God's awesome presence. As you look up to God the Father, I am confident in Christ that He will elevate you spiritually, socially, financially, vocationally, and professionally.

Key points to note about the prophetic declarations and the prayer points:

- Confessing prophetic declarations and prayerpoints is not a substitute for maintaining a living and meaningful relationship with God.
- Making declarations is not a substitute for an effective and heartfelt prayer life. Prayer requires a lot of preparation both physically and psychologically. Making declarations can never substitute adequate preparation to engage God Almighty in meaningful prayer.
- A confession of prayer points and declarations is not a substitute for regular Bible study. The word of God is supposed to anchor the daily life of any born-again Christian (Psalm 119: 11, 89, 105 and 130; Matthew 4: 3-10; Matthew 7: 24-29; Matthew 24: 35; John 8: 31-32; John 14: 21-26, and John 15: 1-8).

It is important that you ask God the Father to favor you with the presence of His Spirit before you start reciting the following prayer points. There is great power which is released when whatever we do or confess is inspired by the Spirit of God (John 14: 26 and Romans 8: 1-14). Our confessions and declarations before God's throne must not be made like the incantations that are recited by pagans before their fake gods.

Prophetic declarations must be made by faith with a strong sense of God-consciousness. At the end of the day, it is the Almighty God who is expected to bring everything we declare to pass. Our God is a relational God who listens to and responds to our prayers, cries, declarations and petitions as long as they are made in faith.
